

ACME Roasters LLC — Seller's Disclosure Statement

REASON FOR SALE

The owner is retiring after 10 years and wishes to transition the business to a new operator. The owner is willing to provide up to 8 weeks of transition support.

LEGAL AND COMPLIANCE

There is one pending legal matter: a former employee filed a wrongful-termination claim in late 2025 seeking approximately $50,000. The company disputes the claim. All business licenses and food-handling permits are current.

CUSTOMER CONCENTRATION

A single wholesale customer, BigCorp Foods, represented roughly 38% of revenue in FY2025. Loss of this account would materially affect revenue.

LEASE AND PREMISES

The roastery operates from a leased 4,000 sq ft facility. The current lease expires in December 2026; renewal terms have not yet been negotiated with the landlord.

OUTSTANDING LIABILITIES

The business has $220,000 in term debt maturing March 2026 and approximately $30,000 in trade payables. There are no known tax liens.
